1. The present and anticipated scope of [redacted] Commo Supply activities does not warrant the assignment of a COMMO Supply Officer as such. The Deputy Chief of [redacted] performs the principal functions of Station Adjutant. He is (and should be) a valid [redacted] His relief could well be [redacted] of corresponding rank and experience. In any event, he should be trained in COMMO supply matters and qualified to execute that responsibility.

2. It is believed that the most effective distribution of work-load and responsibilities in [redacted] and particularly [redacted] is accomplished by the foregoing arrangement. The presence of a GS-9 supply officer is neither desired nor required and could be considered T/O position.
